Non-stop fixed chamber baler-wrapper combination

- * The art of round baling took a massive leap forward with the unveiling of FastBale – a revolutionary non-stop round baler wrapper combination that cleverly integrates a main chamber and a pre-chamber, which is about two thirds of the size of the main chamber and a wrapper.
- * Baling starts in the conventional manner with the main chamber producing the first bale. However, once the bale is fully formed, instead of having to stop to apply the net or film, FastBale diverts the crop flow to the pre-chamber.
- * This allows the net or film to be applied to the bale in the main chamber and for the bale to be ejected onto the wrapper. When the pre-chamber is full, the incoming crop flow, together with the pre-compressed crop are both then transferred into the main bale chamber. Here the bale is formed to its final size and density.
- * FastBale's pick-up is equipped with 5 tine bars, with each bar supported by two intermediate bearings, while a cam track at both ends reduces cam loadings by 50%, giving assured long term durability.
- * A huge 800 mm diameter intake rotor equipped with 50 Hardox® tines, gives unrivalled intake capacity. Close mounting of the pick-up to the rotor eliminates any dead areas when working in short crops while the 25-knife SuperCut chopping system features group selection giving a choice 6, 12, 13, 25 knives to match all conditions, all backed up with the security of a drop floor in case of blockage.
- * A unique internal drive system keeps overall width to a minimum, with the result that pick-up guide wheels do not need to be removed or folded for transport, reducing unproductive time between jobs.
- * Complex bale transfer systems have been completely eliminated. The wrapper is lowered to receive the bale directly from the main bale chamber. The wrap-around main frame also avoids any risk of a bale being lost over the back of the wrapper when working on sloping land, improving operational safety compared to other systems.
- * FastBale's innovative wrapping system incorporates twin satellites, which rotate about the vertical axis, with the bale supported on two powered rollers. This layout substantially reduces the space required for rotation of the film, resulting in a more compact machine, faster operation and higher precision in wrapping.
- * FastBale has a unique method of discharging the wrapped bale. When wrapping is complete, the rear roller is lifted. This gently places the bale onto the ground, rather than rolling it off the wrapping table, greatly reducing the risk of the bale rolling away when working on sloping land.

Cyclone Mower

Heavy duty mulcher and shredder

These rotary mowers are designed for the most rugged working environments with reduced power consumption, outperforming equivalent-sized flail mowers in every way.

- ✓ Eight working widths from 2.00m (6' 5") to 6.30m (20' 8")
- ✓ Save a minimum of 25% on power consumption and fuel costs
- ✓ Unique blade system for maximum mulching and shredding
- ✓ Low maintenance machine with less wearing parts than a flail mower

Tanco 1400-V

The 1400-V is the latest version of Tanco's 1400 high output trailed round bale wrapper, designed and built on the proven reliability, ease of operation and high output set by the 1400-EH. The patented 1400 split table which is designed to allow simultaneous loading and unloading is retained and enhanced on the 1400-V with the addition of auto-loading. The introduction on the 1400-V of innovative features such as Tanco's ultra reliable telescopic cutter's and direct gear drive to the satellite arms combined with the proven design of the 1400 low centre of gravity chassis which positions the bale forward of the axle for maximum stability ensures that the 1400-V continues to deliver the high output associated with the Tanco 1400 bale wrapper.
